We believe a person has SEND if they have a learning difficulty or disability which calls for special educational provision to be made for him or her.

We have a duty to provide appropriate SEN provision for children and young people in order to meet their needs. It is also our duty to 'make reasonable adjustments for disabled children and young people, to support medical conditions and to inform parents and young people if SEN provision is made for them.' We must ensure that under no circumstance will we directly or indirectly discriminate against, harass or victimise disabled children or young people.

When organising additional support it is very important that we provide children with special educational needs and disabilities (SEND) a broad and balanced curriculum with regular access to all subjects and areas of learning. We believe that children with SEND should not be routinely segregated from their class teachers and peers but included as much as possible within their class.

We believe we provide high quality teaching in small classes that is differentiated and personalised and that meets the needs of children and young people. We have high ambitions, set challenging targets, and track the progress of all pupils.

We believe teachers are responsible for children's learning and that teaching assistants will be used effectively to provide the necessary support for children with SEND within the classroom.

We are aware that depending upon their age and understanding we must discuss with pupils with SEND any decision that might affect them.

We are aware that current statistics clearly show that children with SEN or with a disability have a significantly high risk of being verbally abused or physically assaulted on either a daily or weekly basis by other children as they appear to be an easy target.

We work hard to create and maintain a school environment of positivity where all children are taught to embrace and value difference.

We all have a responsibility to ensure equality permeates in to all aspects of school life and that everyone is treated equally irrespective of age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex and sexual orientation. We want everyone connected with this school to feel safe, secure, valued and of equal worth.

We will seek the advice and support from the following external specialists if a pupil continues to make less than expected progress:

- educational psychologists
- mental health services
- hearing impairment
- vision impairment
- multi-sensory impairment
- speech and language therapists
- occupational therapists
- physiotherapists

In some cases and when the government/other funding is not available the parents will be asked to meet the costs of the external assessments/tests or additional support required for the child.

Identification, Assessment and Provision

- We feel it is vital that pupils with special educational needs are identified at an early stage.
- Every teacher in this school is responsible for identifying pupils with special educational needs.
- We will inform parents at the earliest opportunity of the school's concerns and to work in partnership with them to establish the support the child needs.
- We have a duty to support pupils with medical conditions.
- Accurate and up to date records will be kept at all times.

Identification. Assessment and Provision will be based on:

Information provided by the parents on admission

Information provided by the previous school attended by the child

Observations and assessments of the class teacher and SENCO coordinator/Senco learning support teaching assistant

Assessments and test results

Parents observations

Reports and tests/assessments by external specialists and agencies

We believe it is essential that this policy clearly identifies and outlines the roles and responsibilities of all those involved in the procedures and arrangements that is connected with this policy.

Aims

- To have due regard to the Special Educational Needs and Disability Code of Practice.
- To identify pupils with special educational needs and disabilities as early as possible and that their needs are met.

- provide support for individual or groups of pupils with SEND;
- provide in- class and out of class catch up literacy and numeracy support for pupils;
- assist in the preparation of lessons;
- monitor pupils progress;
- provide feedback to teachers and the SENCO;
- attend appropriate training;
- suggest training needs.

Role and Rights of Parents

We encourage parents to:

- work closely with the school in order to develop a partnership that will support special educational needs pupils;
- provide all the information related to the child's medical conditions, tests and assessments results (in UK and abroad), child's previous school experience and progress (in UK and abroad)
- be aware of their child's targets and their progress towards them;
- take part in the review of IEPs;
- attend and take part in annual reviews;
- help and assist in organizing external assessments, tests and visits of the specialists;
- help and assist to organize extra support for the child with special educational needs
- consider requesting an Education, Health and Care needs assessment.

Role and Rights of Pupils

We encourage pupils with special educational needs to understand their rights and to take part in assessing their needs, setting learning targets and the annual review.

Identification, Assessment and Provision

- We feel it is vital that pupils with special educational needs are identified at an early stage.
- Every teacher in this school is responsible for identifying pupils with special educational needs.
- We will inform parents at the earliest opportunity of the school's concerns and to work in partnership with them to establish the support the child needs.
- We have a duty to support pupils with medical conditions.
- Accurate and up to date records will be kept at all times.

Identification. Assessment and Provision will be based on:

Information provided by the parents on admission

Information provided by the previous school attended by the child

Observations and assessments of the class teacher and SENCO coordinator/Senco learning support teaching assistant

- school events
- meetings with school personnel
- communications with home such as newsletters
- reports such annual report to parents and Headteacher reports to the Governing Body
- information area for parents

- receive periodic training so that they are kept up to date with new information
- receive equal opportunities training on induction in order to improve their understanding of the Equality Act 2010 and its implications

Awareness training will be provided by the SENCO and by support teachers on specific topics and concerns.

Equality Impact Assessment

Under the Equality Act 2010 we have a duty not to discriminate against people on the basis of their age, disability, gender, gender identity, pregnancy or maternity, race, religion or belief and sexual orientation.

This policy has been equality impact assessed and we believe that it is in line with the Equality Act 2010 as it is fair, it does not prioritise or disadvantage any pupil and it helps to promote equality at this school.

Monitoring the Implementation and Effectiveness of the Policy

The practical application of this policy will be reviewed annually or when the need arises by the coordinator, the Headteacher and the Foundation Committee.

A statement of the policy's effectiveness and the necessary recommendations for improvement will be presented to the Governing Body for further discussion and endorsement.
