Message from the local Public Health Lead:

Level 3 Cold Weather Action Warning was triggered on Monday.

Amber warning has been issued today for snow in London and south East England.

There is a 90% probability of severe cold weather/icy conditions/heavy snow between 0900 on Monday 28 Jan and 0900 on Friday 01 Feb in parts of England.

This weather could increase the health risks to vulnerable patients and disrupt the delivery of services. Prolonged periods of cold weather can be dangerous, especially for the very young, very old or those with chronic diseases.
