Aims

In accordance with its duties under the Equality Act 2010, AZBUKA Russian-English Bilingual School aims to create and maintain an environment that will:

- Promote equality of opportunity;
- Challenge discrimination with a view to eliminating unlawful discrimination;
- Promote good relations between members of different racial, cultural and religious groups and communities;

- Enable students to take responsibility for their behaviour and relationships with others; and
- Prevent unequal treatment on the grounds of disability.

This policy was formally adopted by the Governing Body of AZBUKA Russian-English Bilingual School. It is the intention of the Governing Body that it should be reviewed annually.

The Equality Act 2010

Equality is ensuring that individuals or groups of individuals are treated fairly and equally and no less favourably, specific to their needs. The Equality Act 2010 prohibits all employers, service providers and providers of education, from discriminating against, harassing or victimising individuals with protected characteristics. The protected characteristics detailed in the Equality Act 2010 are:

- Age;
- Disability;
- Gender Reassignment;
- Marriage and Civil Partnership;
- Pregnancy and Maternity;

- Race;
- Religion or Belief;
- Sex; and
- Sexual Orientation.

Public Sector Equality Duty

The Public Sector Equality Duty (PSED) requires all schools to take a more proactive approach in all their activities to eliminate discrimination, harassment and victimisation, advance equality of opportunity and foster good relations.

AZBUKA Russian-English Bilingual School will have due regard to the need to:

- Eliminate discrimination and other conduct that is prohibited by the Act;
- Advance equality of opportunity between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it; and
- Foster good relations across all characteristics, between people who share a protected characteristic and people who do not share it.

Eliminating Harassment and Bullying

Protection from violence at work is ingrained in the Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1974 which stipulates that employers have a legal duty to ensure the health and safety of their employees and the Management of Health and Safety at Work Regulations 1999, under which arrangements for the effective prevention of foreseeable violence must be in place. Under the Reporting of Injuries, Diseases and Dangerous Occurrences Regulations 2013 (RIDDOR) employers must report to the enforcing authority incidents resulting in death, serious injury or incapacitation for three or more consecutive days, which includes incidents of violence against employees. AZBUKA Russian-English Bilingual School acknowledges that violence may be perpetrated on the grounds of prejudice as hate crimes.

AZBUKA Russian-English Bilingual School's Anti-bullying Policy includes clear guidance on how discrimination, bullying, harassment of all children, young people and adults will be dealt with.

AZBUKA Russian-English Bilingual School will not tolerate harassment based on any protected characteristic and will endeavour to promote a culture of inclusion and tolerance and promote equality of opportunity.

- All staff are responsible for following the policy and reporting incidents of discriminatory treatment to the appropriate senior member of staff;
- Where staff come across incidents involving discriminatory bullying, they must report them (see Handsam Quick Guide document EO10 England Discrimination Incident Report Form); and

- The Governing Body monitors at least once per term any incidents and actions taken relating to discriminatory bullying.

Bullying and harassment of staff, as well as pupils, will be monitored and the information used to determine future policies.

All incidents of discriminatory bullying amongst pupils will be taken seriously and must be dealt with appropriately and reported to the appropriate senior member of staff.

Ethos, Vision and Values

AZBUKA Russian-English Bilingual School is committed to ensuring equal treatment of all its employees, pupils and any others involved in the school community.

AZBUKA Russian-English Bilingual School will ensure that no-one is treated less favourably in any procedures, practices or aspects of service delivery. The commitment to equality must be evident in all areas of school life.

Commitment to Staff Equality

The Governing Body will ensure that the requirement to promote equality is clearly reflected in AZBUKA Russian-English Bilingual School policies and procedures for the management of staff and in the equal opportunity policies that affect the staff relationship with pupils and others.

- People becoming disabled while in employment will be given positive help to retain their jobs or to be considered for redeployment if that is necessary.

Commitment to Pupil Opportunity

AZBUKA Russian-English Bilingual School is guided by three essential principles:

- Every pupil should have opportunities to achieve the highest possible standards and the best possible qualifications for the next stages of their life and education;
- Every pupil should be helped to develop a sense of personal and cultural identity that is confident and open to change, and that is receptive and respectful towards other identities; and
- Every pupil should develop the knowledge, understanding and skills that they need in order to participate in our multi-ethnic society, and in the wider context of an inter-dependent world.

These principles will underpin the AZBUKA Russian-English Bilingual School curriculum, and all subject areas must have regard to them when constructing programmes of study. They will also underpin the maintenance of harmony and accord within the school and be the promoted ethos of all staff.

At AZBUKA Russian-English Bilingual School:

- Pupils will share in the development of the policy and be made aware of how it applies to them. They will learn to treat each other with respect and be prepared to report incidents of discrimination to a member of staff or other adults as appropriate. Pupils have equal access to the AZBUKA curriculum programmes of study (unless disapplied) throughout each key stage and non-compulsory courses according to aptitude and ability;

- AZBUKA Russian-English Bilingual School will promote aspiration in all pupils and monitor the destinations of pupils from different groups.

AZBUKA Russian-English Bilingual School is committed to promoting equality of opportunity and good race relations for the benefit of everyone. The Governing Body and staff recognise their responsibilities in preparing young people for life in a culturally diverse society. AZBUKA Russian-English Bilingual School recognises that race encompasses ethnicity and that this may be defined by religious and customary practices.

Dealing with Racial Incidents

The Governing Body expect all staff:

- To deal with any racist incidents that occur;
- To know how to identify and challenge racial and cultural bias and stereotyping;

- Encourage classroom and staffroom discussion of racial issues which reflect on racial stereotypes, expectations and the impact on learning; and
- Include teaching and classroom-based approaches appropriate for the whole school population.

Sexuality and Gender Equality

AZBUKA Russian-English Bilingual School will ensure the equal treatment of its employees, pupils and all members of the school community regardless of gender or sexuality. The school approach to gender and sexual equality will be formulated with equal input by all parties.

It is the responsibility of AZBUKA Russian-English Bilingual School to conduct employment practices and activity in a way that is free from discrimination and harassment and actively promote gender equality within our workforce.

Gender and sexuality aspects are considered when appointing staff, allocating Teaching and Learning Responsibilities (TLR) or re-assessing staff structures for promotion, to ensure all decisions are free of discrimination.

The Equality Act 2010 defines a person as disabled if they have a physical or mental impairment that has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on a person's ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities. The Governing Body recognises its duties under the Equality Act 2010 not to discriminate against disabled pupils in their admission or exclusion, nor in the provision of education and associated services.

AZBUKA Russian-English Bilingual School's policies will always consider the needs of disabled staff, pupils and visitors to the school.

Disabled Pupils

The school's compliance with the Equality Act 2010 is consistent with AZBUKA Russian-English Bilingual School's SEN and Disability Policy and our Supporting Pupils with Medical Conditions Policy. This policy should also be read in conjunction with AZBUKA Russian-English Bilingual School's Accessibility Plan and Admission Policy for Pupils.
